A close-up, slightly blurred background image of a buffet line. Several stainless steel chafing dishes are visible, each containing different types of food. The top dish is filled with skewers of grilled meat, possibly chicken or pork, with some vegetables. The middle dish contains a colorful salad of diced vegetables like tomatoes, cucumbers, and onions. The bottom dish is partially visible and appears to contain a sauce or another type of food. The text "AGROHUB CATERING" is overlaid in the center in a bold, white, sans-serif font.

A photograph of a buffet line in a restaurant or catering hall. Several white rectangular serving trays are arranged in a row on a dark wooden table. The trays contain various food items, including what appears to be a salad, shredded cheese, and a dark, chunky sauce or meat. Metal serving spoons and tongs are placed in the trays. In the background, there are more trays and some bottles on a counter, slightly out of focus. The lighting is warm and indoor.
